SUMMARY OF SCHEDULED MEETINGS

Wednesday, 30 June 1999

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Twenty-first special session

1st plenary meeting

Opening of the session by the Temporary President, the Chairman of the Delegation of Uruguay [1]

The Temporary President, H.E. Mr. Jorge Pérez-Otermin, Chairman of the Delegation of Uruguay, declared open the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly.

Minute of silent prayer or meditation [2]

The Temporary President then invited members of the General Assembly to observe one minute of silent prayer or meditation.

Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations (Article 19 of the Charter) (A/S-21/3)

The Temporary President drew the attention of the General Assembly to a letter addressed by the Secretary-General (A/S-21/3) concerning the arrears of 32 Member States in the payment of their financial contribution to the United Nations.

Appointment of the members of the Credentials Committee [3 (a)]

On the recommendation of the Commission on Population and Development acting as the preparatory committee for the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly, the Assembly decided that the Credentials Committee for the twenty-first special session would consist of the same members as those appointed for the fifty-third session of the Assembly, namely China, Fiji, Jamaica, Mali, New Zealand, the Russian Federation, the United States of America, Venezuela and Zimbabwe.

The Temporary President called attention to the fact that credentials should be issued for all representatives to the special session, in accordance with rule 27 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, and urged all members to submit the credentials of representatives to the Secretary-General as soon as possible.

Election of the President of the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly [4]

On the recommendation of the preparatory committee, the General Assembly elected the President of the fifty-third session of the General Assembly, H.E. Mr. Didier Opertti (Uruguay) President of the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly.

The President made a statement.

Statement by the Secretary-General

The Secretary-General made a statement.

Report of the Commission on Population and Development acting as the preparatory committee for the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly (A/S-21/2 and Add.1 and 2) [5]

The Chairman of the Commission on Population and Development acting as the preparatory committee for the twenty-first special session of the General Assembly, H.E. Mr. Anwarul Karim Chowdhury (Bangladesh), made a statement in the course of which he introduced the report of the preparatory committee (A/S-21/2 and Add.1 and 2).

Organization of the session [6]: draft decision II (A/S-21/2)

The General Assembly adopted draft decision II recommended by the preparatory committee in paragraph 35 of its report (A/S-21/2).

On the basis of the decision taken by the Assembly, the President informed members that the Vice-Presidents of the fifty-third session would serve in the same capacity at the twenty-first special session. The representatives of Brunei Darussalam, Cameroon, China, France, Georgia, Germany, Lesotho, Liberia, Morocco, Myanmar, Nicaragua, the Russian Federation, San Marino, Senegal, Suriname, the Syrian Arab Republic, Turkmenistan, Uganda, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the United States of America and Yemen were elected Vice-Presidents of the twenty-first special session.

The President also informed members that the Chairmen of the Main Committees of the fifty-third session would serve in the same capacity at the twenty-first special session. The President further informed the Assembly that, in the absence of the Chairman of the First Committee, the Vice-Chairperson, H.E. Ms. Akmaral Arystanbekova (Kazakhstan), would be Acting Chairperson of the Committee for the duration of the twenty-first special session.

The General Assembly elected H.E. Ms. Akmaral Arystanbekova (Kazakhstan), Vice-Chairperson of the First Committee; Mr. Pablo Macedo (Mexico), Chairman of the Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee); H.E. Mr. Bagher Asadi (Islamic Republic of Iran), Chairman of the Second Committee; H.E. Mr. Ali Hachani (Tunisia), Chairman of the Third Committee; H.E. Mr. Movses Abelian (Armenia), Chairman of the Fifth Committee; H.E. Mr. Jargalsaikhany Enkhsaikhan (Mongolia), Chairman of the Sixth Committee.

In adopting the recommendations of the preparatory committee, the Assembly established an ad hoc committee of the whole, designated as the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole of the Twenty-first Special Session.

In accordance with the recommendation of the preparatory committee adopted by the General Assembly, the President informed members that the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole would be a full member of the General Committee of the twenty-first special session.

Pursuant to the recommendation made by the preparatory committee that the Chairman of the preparatory committee serve in the same capacity in the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole, the Assembly elected H.E. Mr. Anwarul Karim Chowdhury (Bangladesh) as Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole.

The General Committee of the twenty-first special session was thus fully constituted.

On the basis of the decision taken by the General Assembly, the President informed members that observers could make statements in the debate in the plenary.

The President also informed members that States members of specialized agencies of the United Nations that were not members of the United Nations, namely Cook Islands, the Holy See, Kiribati, Nauru, Niue, Switzerland, Tonga and Tuvalu, had been invited to participate in the work of the special session in the capacity of observers.

The President further informed members that associate members of the regional commissions, namely American Samoa; Anguilla; Aruba; the British Virgin Islands; the Cook Islands; French Polynesia; Guam; Hong Kong, China; Macau; Montserrat; the Netherlands Antilles; New Caledonia; Niue; the Northern Mariana Islands; Puerto Rico; and the United States Virgin Islands had been invited to participate in the special session, in the same capacity of observers that held for their participation in the 1994 International Conference on Population and Development.

The President informed members that representatives of the United Nations system could make statements in the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole.

The President also informed members that, in view of time constraints, representatives of non-governmental organizations could make statements in the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole.

In accordance with the decision adopted by the General Assembly, the President also informed members that there would be nine plenary meetings scheduled over the three-day period, with three meetings per day from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

The President reminded members that, on the basis of the decision adopted by the Assembly, the length of statements should not exceed 7 minutes so that all those inscribed on the list of speakers for a given meeting would be heard at that meeting.

Adoption of the agenda (A/S-21/1) [7]

The General Assembly decided to consider the provisional agenda of the twenty-first special session without referring it to the General Committee.

The Assembly then adopted the agenda as contained in document A/S-21/1 and as contained in draft decision I recommended by the preparatory committee in paragraph 35 of its report (A/S-21/2).

On the basis of the decision taken by the Assembly, the President informed members that while all items had been allocated to the plenary, agenda item 8 had also been allocated to the Ad Hoc Committee of the Whole for consideration, on the understanding that the debate on the item would take place in plenary meeting.

Overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development: debate [8]
